A Note from Father

Lent is right around the corner! Are you ready to pray, fast, and give Alms? We start with Ash Wednesday on Feb. 14th, (better take your sweetheart out the night before.) Ash Wednesday is one of the two days we are called to fast each year; Good Friday being the other. In between we can make other sacrifices.

Two other dates you can make note of are Feb. 27th and March 7th. I hope you can give your time and attention to these days as we will have a well known Catholic Speaker coming to us on the 27th and we will be inviting our whole Christian community to join us in praying the stations of the cross with us here at St. Paul's Parish.

I hope and pray that this Lent will be a great opportunity for all of us to grow in discipleship.

Sincerely, Fr. Andrew Kurz
